Keys

Third stage

What are the three keys to writing a good paraphrase?

1. Use your own words and your own sentence structure.
2. Make your paraphrase approximately the same length as the original.
3. Do not change the meaning of the original.

Group Name

Plagiarism is wrongly using someone else's words or ideas, and it is a serious offence.

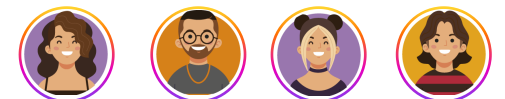

What are two kinds of plagiarism?

1. When you use information from an outside source without citing the source.
2. Even when you cite your source, if your paraphrase is too similar to the original.

Summarizing: Another way to use borrowed information from an outside source is to summarize it.

Third stage

What is the difference between a paraphrase and a summary?

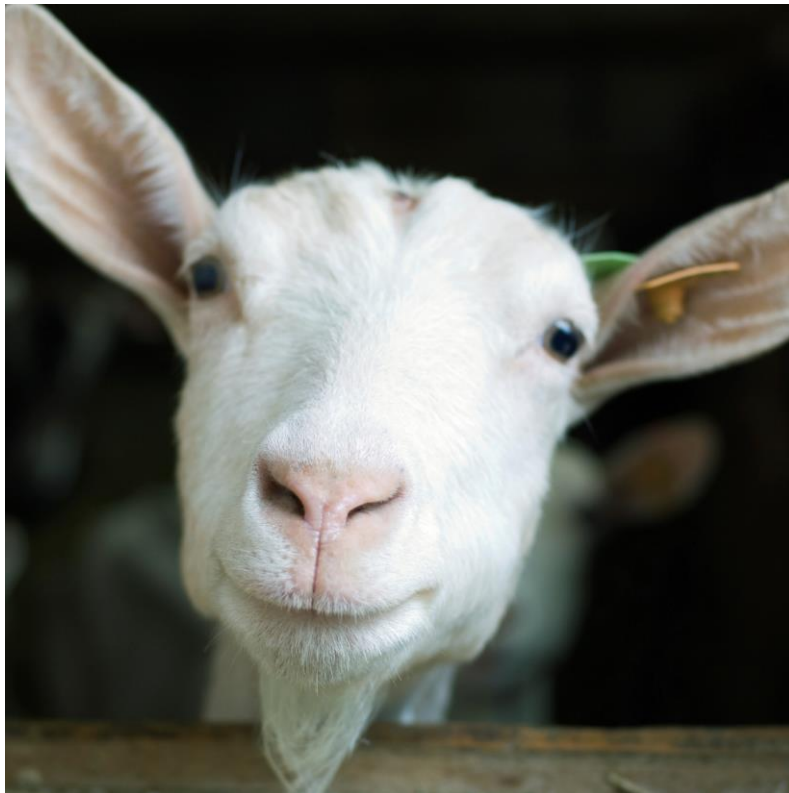

When you retell a story that someone has told you, you repeat the story in your own words. If your retelling is about the same length as the original, it is a paraphrase. If you shorten the story-retelling only the most important points and leave out the details-it is a summary.

Pets are wonderful companions that can bring joy and happiness to our lives. They provide unconditional love and support, and can help reduce stress and anxiety. Dogs, cats, and birds are some of the most popular pets, but there are many other unique animals that people keep as companions, such as reptiles, fish, and rodents.

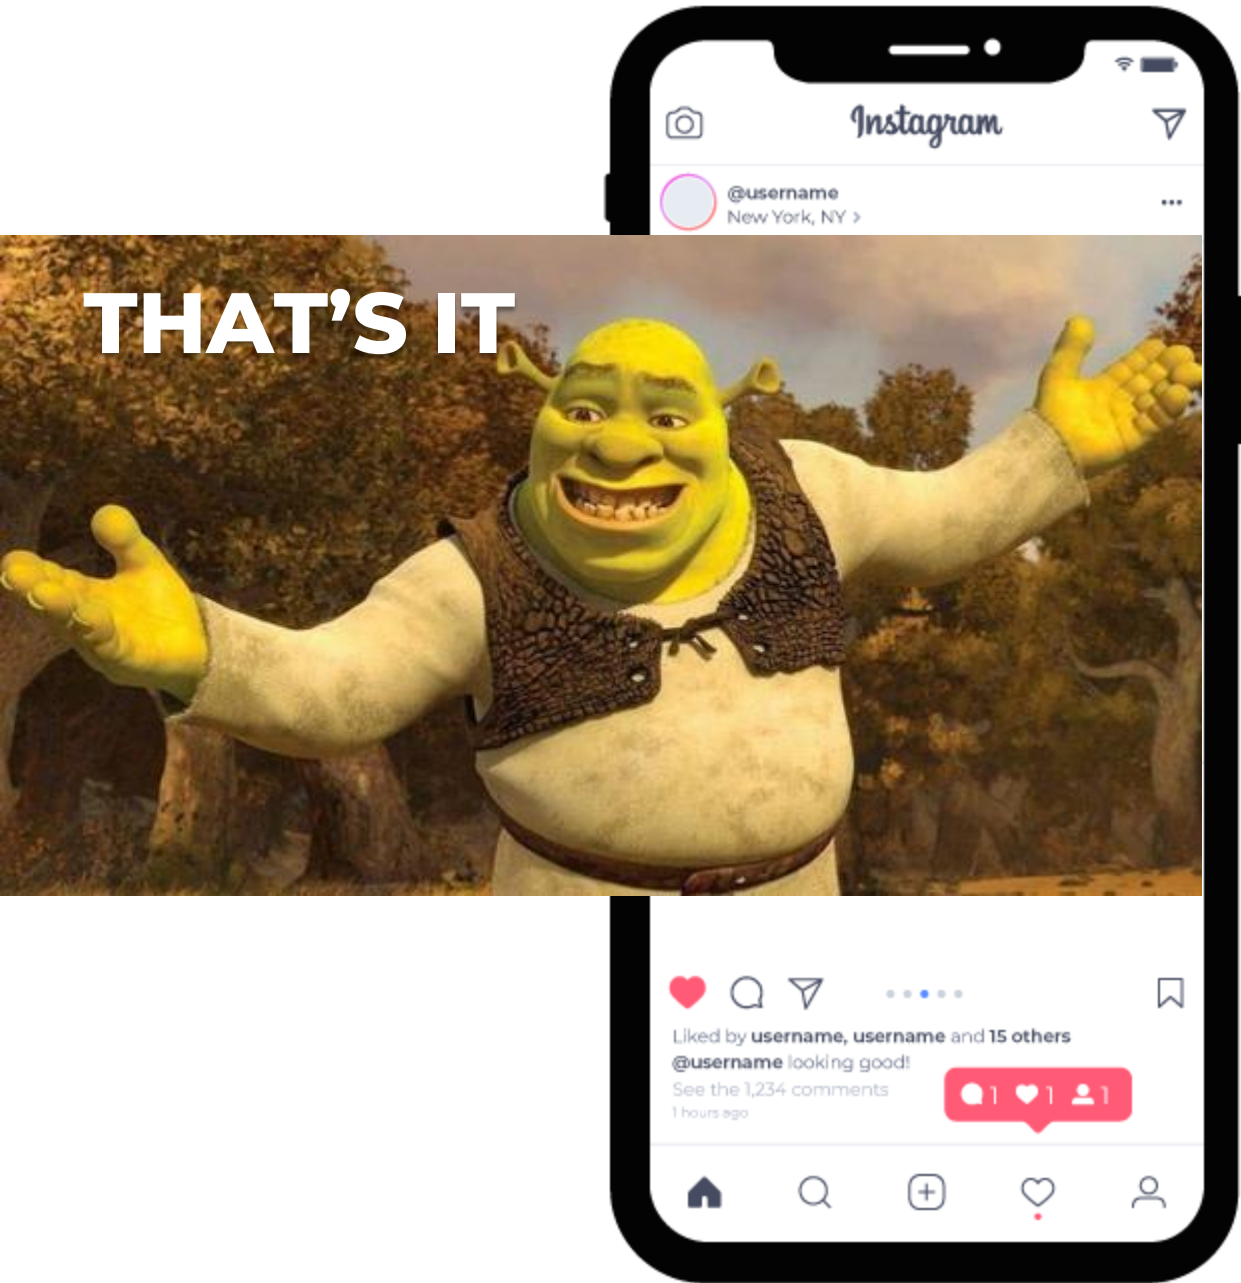

Having a pet can be a rewarding experience. Animals offer companionship, love, and emotional support. From dogs and cats to more exotic creatures, there's a pet out there for everyone.

Pets are great companions. They provide love, support, and can reduce stress."
